"SPRING 1964"
1-Reel Universal Comedy
Starring NEELY EDWARDS
and BERT ROACH

Oscar, a hen-pecked husband of a forthcoming generation, gets caught by his wife who surprises him in the act of flirting with the ice-woman. His domineering spouse beats him up and then goes down to the office to earn the family bread. He then goes marketing but is forced to submit to the unwelcome advances of a masherette.

She forces him into her limousine and takes him for a long ride in the country. His unwillingness to indulge in a petting party results in his having to get out and walk home. The ice-woman returns and wants Oscar to elope, but is caught by Mrs. Oscar who drives the interloper away. The ice-woman leaves, vowing vengeance: "You'll not get any more ice."
